From The Editor...

Participation Should Increase

Many of the extra-curricular or co-curricular activities here at RHS are winding down and the school is beginning its transition from winter activities to spring activities. This is a very important time of year and it is important that the quality of the school does not slip.

The winter sports have concluded, debate is over, and the third quarter is over. We are now bearing down on the final nine weeks period of the year. With spring comes a variety of new possibilities for involvement and action. Organizational participation and accomplishment should be reaching a peak.

It is important that we do not become infected with the "spring fever" or "seniorities" that is so easily picked up. Now is the time to re-evaluate our attitudes, accomplishments, and potential. Perhaps we have not been performing as well as possible. Maybe we are victims of over-involvement.

We have the opportunity to renew old goals and make new ones as we consider what is left to be accomplished this year. Now we can show some dedication to the clubs to which we belong. Certainly we should try to prevent any academic decline.

This student body has gone through three-fourths of a year without tapping nearly enough of its talents, resources, and potential. The least we could do is to stir interest, regain good attitudes, and begin building this entire educational complex into a hard working successful machine that we can all be proud of.

Future Farmers Host Area Judging School

The local FFA Chapter also hosted an invitational judging contest. This event was held on March 19.

Redfield did not place in either the speech or talent contests. Approximately 300 students from 14 towns participated in this competition. Poultry, crops, and farm mechanics contests were on an individual competition basis with no school competition in this meet. In the crops division, the highest Redfield scorer was Bob Hardie. Gerald Nuhsbaumer nabbed the highest Redfield rating in the poultry division. No point totals were kept in the auto mechanics division. FFA'ers who participated in this event were Scott Moore, Brian Maher, Kevin Schurch, Marlin Schmidt, and Paul Lemmer.

Future Farmers of America RHS judging team placed fourth in the over-all judging held at Mitchell March 10. Approximately twenty-five other schools also competed in the events.

The Redfield team placed fourth in the livestock division, sixth in the crops division, and fourth in the over-all sweepstakes. Those making the trip to Mitchell were Bob Hardie, Bob Robinson, Jon Galvin, Tony Solheim, Mark Muelenberg, and Jerry Levtzow. Doug Fink, Dennis Becker, Joel Haber, Rick Van Vleet, Dave Jessen, and Dave Jungwirth also attended.

Jerry Levtzow, RHS senior, gained a tie for first place at the finish of the livestock judging contest but had to settle for second place honors on the basis of his reasons given during the contests. Levtzow scored 290 of a possible 300 points.

1973 Boys State Alternates

Thinclads Condition For Spring Track

Track workouts began for Coach Ken Greeno's entire team on March 19. The thinclads pictured here doing pre-workout calisthenics are seniors Bill Betten and Kevin Boschee among other unrecognized boys. The squad is competing in two indoor meets before the outdoor season begins.

Cage Coach Selects Lettermen For Year

Coach Lonnie Scriver's Golden Pheasant cagers completed their season at the Section 1A Tournament held in Brookings March 6-7. Redfield finished second in the tournament to the Flandreau Indians.

Four seniors and seven juniors have been named letter winners by Coach Scriver. The senior lettermen are Kevin Gaulrapp, Randy Bush, Daryl Jungwirth, and Randy Swedeen. Rich Jankord, Denis Guenther, Steve Jones, Reed Siegling, Dana Coats, Tim Esser, and Steve Marlette earned letters this year as juniors.

The Pheasants' season record finished at the .500 mark with an 11-11 won-loss record. Redfield tied for third in the NEC with Milbank with an 8-6 conference mark.

The cagers averaged 57.6 points per game during the course of the season, while allowing their opponents an average of 63.6 points per game. Steve Jones and Reed Siegling tied for free throw shooting honors for Redfield. Both of the juniors hit on 69 percent of the attempts from the charity stripe.

Center Daryl Jungwirth led the Pheasants in scoring for the year. Jungwirth dropped in 315 points during the season for a 14.3 average. Reed Siegling threw in 286 counters for a 13 point per game average.

Jungwirth also led Redfield in the rebounding department, as he grabbed 243 missed shots. Rich Jankord handed out 83 assists during the season to lead Pheasants in that category.

Tracksters Prepare For Coming Season

RHS thinclads are looking forward to a new NEC record by taking the conference track meet for the seventh consecutive year. The record is held now by Milbank and Redfield. This year coach Ken Greeno will be assisted by Mr. Richard Strande and Mr. Gary Schumacher. Mr. Strande will work with the jumpers while Mr. Schumacher will be working with the weightmen.

Coach Greeno hopes to have a well balanced team this year. He feels that the weakest event will be the pole vault. He also stated that Redfield should be strong in the longer distances but it will be hard to refill the shoes of Don Zundel, Rod Hardie, and Steve Raebel.

The nineteen returning lettermen are seniors, Bill Betten, Kevin Boschee, Doug Fink, Bob Severance, Randy Swedeen and Dean Jankord. The juniors are Terry Anderson, Mark Baus, Steve Betten, Don Bruce, Dana Coats, Tim Esser, Eric Flint, Denis Guenther, Scott Hicks, Rich Jankord, Butch Jungwirth and Rick Marlette. The only sophomore letterman is John Lindberg.

Coach Nuhsbaumer's team consists of Laura Goetz, Virginia Siebrecht, Nancy Rude, Sarah Haynes, Cathy Patterson, Shirley Jensen, and Marlene Stemper. Gerald states that he is not worried about winning, but he just hopes that Referee Art Tiff doesn't call a technical for "stuffing before the game."

Coach Booze's six players are Darlys Olsen, Kathy Jungwirth, Dianne Strande, Fay Woodfork, Lisa Sanger, and Susanne Moon. Even though his team is short one player, Tim considers his team a sure winner.

Rita Silins gained entrance into the state SDHSAA forensics tournament by placing second in original oratory at the District SDHSAA competition at Watertown. The state tourney was held on March 19-20, in Huron.

Rita competed against nine entrants at the state contest, but did not place at the tournament. Only one place is awarded at the statewide level of competition.

At the District level Redfield's duo of Bill Betten and Susan Nelsen competed in switch side debate and came up with an 0-2 record. Bill also took part in men's extemp speaking.
